SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. Following release from imprisonment, the court will evaluate defendant's status and determine whether, after incarceration, drug rehabilitation is necessary and appropriate. If additional rehabilitation is deemed appropriate, the defendant shall participate in a program as designated by the court, upon consultation with the probation officer, until such time as the defendant has satisfied all the requirements of the program.
2. The defendant shall reside in a residence free of firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, and dangerous weapons.
3. The defendant shall submit to warrantless search and seizure of person and property as directed by the probation officer, to determine whether the defendant is in possession of firearms or illegal controlled substances.
4. It is further ordered that the defendant must comply with the conditions of supervision adopted by the standing order of this court and as noted below:
 - A. The defendant shall register with all local and state sex offender registration agencies in any jurisdiction where the defendant resides, is employed, carries a vocation, is a student, or is otherwise required to register by SORNA.
 - B. The defendant's residence and employment shall be approved by the probation officer. Any proposed change in residence or employment must be provided to the probation officer at least 10 days prior to the change and must be approved before the change may take place.
 - C. The defendant shall submit to an evaluation by a qualified mental health professional, approved by the probation officer, who is experienced in the treatment of sexual offenders. The defendant shall take all medications reasonably related to his or her condition, complete all treatment recommendations, and abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions imposed by the treatment provider until discharged from treatment by the provider.
 - D. The defendant shall submit to risk assessments and psychological and physiological testing, which may include but is not limited to polygraph or plethysmograph examinations or other specific tests to monitor the defendant's compliance.
 - E. The defendant shall submit to a search of his or her person, property, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, electronic communication devices, or data storage devices or media at any time by the probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of release. The defendant should warn any other residents or occupants that their premises or vehicles in which the defendant may be located could be subject to search pursuant to this condition.
 - F. The defendant shall not linger within 100 feet of any parks, school property, playgrounds, arcades, amusement parks, daycare centers, swimming pools, community recreation fields, zoos, youth centers, carnivals, circuses, or other places that are primarily used or can reasonably be expected to be used by minors, without prior permission of the probation officer.
 - G. The defendant shall not use, purchase, possess, procure, or otherwise obtain any computer or electronic device or cellular telephone that can be linked to any computer networks, bulletin boards, the Internet, or other exchange formats involving computers unless approved by the probation officer for such purposes as the defendant's lawful gainful employment, use by an immediate family member living in the defendant's same household, or other legitimate activities. In addition, the defendant shall not access or use any computer that utilizes any "cleaning" or "wiping" software programs.
 - H. The defendant shall notify employers, family members, and others with whom the defendant has regular contact of the defendant's sex offender conditions and that the defendant is under the supervision of the probation officer.
 - I. The defendant shall not be employed in any position or participate as a volunteer in any activity that involves contact with minors without prior approval of the probation officer. The defendant may not engage in any activity that involves being in a position of trust or authority over any minor.
 - J. The defendant shall participate in the Computer and Internet Monitoring Program and abide by all conditions therein as directed by the probation officer. Participation in this program is contingent upon all program criteria being met.
 - K. The defendant shall not be in the company of or have contact with children under the age of 18, including the defendant's own children, without prior permission of the probation officer. Contact includes but is not limited to letters, communication devices, audio or visual devices, and communication through a third party. The defendant shall immediately report any such contact to the probation officer.
 - L. The defendant shall not possess or have under his control any material depicting sexually explicit conduct involving adults or minors, child pornography, or visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256.
 - M. The defendant shall submit to unannounced examination by the probation officer of the defendant's computer equipment and electronic devices, which may include the retrieval and copying of all data from the equipment or devices, to ensure compliance with the conditions of supervision. If the probation officer has reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated the terms and conditions of supervision, the defendant shall consent to the seizure of such equipment and devices for the purpose of conducting a more thorough investigation.
